Bureau has no information concerning "Operation Judas."

A discreet inquiry was made with CIA. CIA, on 1-24-64, advised that the cryptonym "Operation Judas" was unknown to CIA. CIA confidentially advised it was not involved in any activity which included plans to assassinate Castro. CIA stated that Cuban exiles in this country could have such plans and have not seen fit to inform CIA. CIA commented that Manolo Ray, who is allegedly connected with the operation, is well known to be a strong supporter of Hubert Matos who reportedly would become head of the Cuban Government once Castro was disposed of. CIA also noted that Ray is closely associated with Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, anti-Castro leader who allegedly would play an important part in the new government. CIA advised that it would appreciate receiving any additional information which might come to the Bureau's attention concerning Operation Judas. The information received from CIA on 1-24-64 is for your confidential information and should not be incorporated in material prepared for dissemination. (S)(X)(U)

NOTE: Captioned informant furnished information concerning inquiry he had received from Administrative Assistant to Congressman concerning Operation Judas. This is plan for assassination of Castro and the takeover of the Cuban Government which would be headed by Hubert Matos. The new government reportedly would include Manolo Ray and Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo. It was recommended and approved that we contact CIA for information it might have as well as interest it may have in this operation. (S)(U)
